EVERY BUSINESS MAN SHOULD ATTEND COMMITTEE MEET TONIGHT

License and Laws and Ordinance Committees Have Extended a Pressing Invitation to all Business Men to Attend Their First Meeting.

Every business man in Maysville should be present tonight at the Council Chamber to attend the first joint meeting of the License and Laws and Ordinance committees of City Council when they will take up for the first time the matter of licensing all business concerns in the city and making a complete revision of the city's licensing laws.

Council is planning to place a reasonable license fee on most every kind of business in Maysville but they are anxious that the business men be present at this first meeting to express their opinions on the matter before anything final is done. The membership of these two committees include the entire membership of City Council and every councilman is anxious to have the expressed opinion of each and every business man before any action is taken instead of having it after the proposed licensing system is made a law.

There is every reason why the business men should be in attendance at this meeting and few why they should not attend. This first meeting will be simply to get-together affair in which the city officials hope to make plain to the business men the necessity of increasing the city's revenue and the reason for first considering the matter of licensing all business.

The meeting begins promptly at 7:30 o'clock and will be held in the Council Chamber. Every business man in attendance will be permitted to express his opinion on the proposed movement of council.

NEW METHODIST PASTOR COMES FROM STANFORD

Rev. W. D. Welburn, the new pastor of the First M. E. Church, South, comes to Maysville from Stanford, where he has been pastor for the past four years. Rev. Welburn is not a stranger to Maysville county people, although they have not been in touch with him for several years. Some fifteen or twenty years ago he was pastor of the Methodist church at Germantown. He will take a charge of his new church on next Sunday morning and his congregation will give him a hearty welcome.

COUNTY SCHOOL ENROLLMENT SHOWS INCREASE OVER 1918

Many More Pupils Are Enrolled in the Mason County Schools This Year Than Last—Mayslick School Leads All Others.

County schools opened in full blast on Monday and the enrollment in practically every school in the county shows a decided increase over the enrollment of last year. Especially is this increase noticeable in the Consolidated High Schools of the county. Mayslick Consolidated High School leads all others in Mason county with a total enrollment of 314 pupils in all departments while the other High Schools follow close behind with marked increases.

Superintendent Turnipseed is very much encouraged over the reports he has received and is looking forward to the most successful term the Mason county schools have ever had. The schools got started this year under better conditions than ever before. They have a full corps of teachers and the only hindrance that the schools have now is that the full supply of new books as ordered by the School Book Commission are not in the hands of the dealers but these are expected before the end of the present week.

LOCAL CHIROPRACTOR BACK FROM GREAT CONVENTION

Dr. Lambert, popular local Chiropractor and wife, arrived home Monday evening from a trip to Chicago, Davenport, Iowa, and Omaha, Neb. Dr. Lambert went to Davenport to attend the annual convention of the Chiropractors of the world and a great convention they held there being thousands in attendance. At Davenport is located the school of Chiropractic from which Dr. Lambert is a graduate.

POLICE COMMITTEE TAKING TIME ON CHARGES

The police committee of City Council is taking its time in hearing the charges placed against Policeman Dudley Bloomhuff, who is now suspended pending investigations. Chairman Charles B. Davis has not yet called a meeting of the committee to hear the charges and will not likely do so for several days.

GRAND JURY MEETS WEDNESDAY

The Mason County Grand Jury will return Wednesday morning to take up their investigations where they left off late Saturday afternoon. It is expected that the jury will be ready to make a report to court on Wednesday but it is hardly thought that they will have completed their work by that time.

ED. MORROW'S PLATFORM

"If in your wisdom you see fit to elect me Governor of the Commonwealth,

"I will enforce rigid economy in the collection and expenditures of the public funds, stop the leaks, abolish every useless office, and compel retrenchment in every department of State.

"I will take the black hand of politics from the throat of the State's charitable and penal institutions, and name a board for their control composed of men and women of such well known character and fitness that all will know that under such a board the evil of political domination will disappear forever, and that these institutions will be so operated as to reflect the real heart and soul and conscience of Kentucky.

"I will appoint a State tax commission, without regard to politics, composed of such ability and fitness as will fairly, justly and equitably discharge their duties—and if they do not do so I will demand their resignation and tell the State why.

"I will appoint a textbook commission, composed of capable trained men from both parties, and demand that their hearings shall be public. I will protect the school children of the State, and for their benefit will demand the passage of laws to take the departments of education in State and county out of politics.

"I will seek always and everywhere to promote real service, real progress, and a full return in benefits for every dollar expended.

"I will face the fact of the State's overwhelming debt, and by economy and a business administration of fiscal affairs seek to pay it without adding additional burdens to a sorely taxed people.

"I will not for political reasons appoint to office any unworthy or unqualified man, nor will I knowingly permit such an appointment by any public officer.

"I will not employ special attorneys at State expense, nor will I permit the settlement by compromise of State claims; but will compel their adjudication in the courts.

"I will not abuse or misuse the pardoning power, nor will I pardon any guilty man, nor will I use this great power for political ends.

"I will not barter or use my patronage to entrench my party or myself in power, but will seek alone the confidence of a people merited by a faithful, conscientious discharge of public trust.

"I will not while Governor of Kentucky, seek a nomination for any other office, nor will I become a candidate for any other public office.

"I will not deny to the people participation in their affairs, but by the widest publicity I will seek their advice, their confidence, and the expression of their will."

LOCAL BUSINESS MEN MAKE AN INSPECTION TRIP TO DAM 33

At Request of Government Superintendent Quite a Company of Business Men Visit Dam 33 to Inspect the Work That Has Been Done There.

At the request of Superintendent Hall in charge of the government work at Dam 33 just East of Maysville, Captain Horace J. Cochran, president of the Maysville Chamber of Commerce Monday afternoon accepted an invitation for a company of Maysville business men to visit the dam and inspect the work that has been done there for the past several years.

In extending this invitation at this time, Mr. Hall, stated that the work was now in the best condition to see what had been accomplished. He stated that all of the work that had been done in the past was now visible but that in a very short time water would be turned into parts covering much of the work and concrete would be placed over the top of other work. He said that in the past visitors at the dam were unable to see what had been accomplished in the same manner that they could view it now and that now was the best time possible to see just what had been accomplished.

Many business men accepted this kind invitation extended to the Chamber of Commerce and the government steamer Miami came to the local wharf this afternoon and took quite a party of business men on the inspection tour.

Much has been accomplished by the contractors this year and the local dam will be the next one in the Ohio valley to be opened for use. It will control the water from this city to Vanceburg, where contractors this season started the building of another such dam.

SELLS GOOD FARM

OFFICIALS WILL ENDEAVOR TO KEEP INSURANCE DOWN

Mayor Russell and Fire Chief Newell Go to Louisville Meeting With Convincing Evidence—Hope to Keep Down Insurance Rates Here.

Mayor Thomas M. Russell and Fire Chief Newell left this afternoon for Louisville where they will attend the annual meeting of the Kentucky Fire Chiefs and where they will appear before a board of underwriters to protest against a proposed general increase of fire insurance rates all over the state of Kentucky.

The local officials think they have evidence that will convince the underwriters that from a fire loss standpoint Maysville is one of the safest cities in the whole of the United States.

While local property owners pay annually in fire insurance premiums from $62,000 to $70,000 the losses to the fire insurance companies in this city for the past several years have been as follows:

| | | |
|------------------|-------|-------------|
| 1915 | | $39,613.32 |
| 1916 | | 11,200.00 |
| 1917 | | 3,077.63 |
| 1918 | | 15,512.00 |
| Thus far in 1919 | | 2,688.77 |

SCHOOL PATRONS FAVOR SHORT LUNCH PERIOD

The result of the vote of school patrons as taken in the public schools Monday on whether the noon lunch period should be 40 minutes or 60 minutes in length was announced at the office of City Superintendent Caplinger this afternoon as follows: For 40 minutes, 631; for 60 minutes, 179, which demonstrates that the patrons of the schools are overwhelmingly in favor of the short noon period. The shortest period, however, is 40 minutes, which is 10 minutes longer than last year's noon lunch period.

ALL COUNTY SCHOOL BOOKS EXPECTED HERE THIS WEEK

Information received today by County Superintendent Turnipseed is to the effect that all of the books adopted by the recent state Text Book Commission for the county schools, will be in the hands of the dealers by the latter part of this week. Local dealers received big shipment of books Monday but all have not yet been received.

Miss Dorothy Merz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Merz, underwent an operation at Hayswood Hospital this morning for appendicitis. Reports from the hospital this afternoon are that she is getting along very nicely.

CAMPAIGN FOR HEALTH LEAGUE MEMBERS NOW WELL UNDER WAY

Workers in Each Precinct in the County Outside of the City of Maysville Have Been Selected and Have Accepted the Appearances.

The campaign to increase the membership of the Mason County Health League is now fairly well under way in every precinct in Mason county outside of the city of Maysville, each precinct now having a worker who has accepted the appointment and the two Mayslick precincts having announced "over the top" with more than their quota of members enrolled.

Miss Annie M. Casey, Field Nurse for the Health League, announced today that she hoped to be able to announce the city workers within a day or so and she hoped that the six wards in the city of Maysville would enroll its apportionment within a very few days.

The new system under which the Health League is planning to work with a greatly increased membership will insure much more success to their work than even has already been accomplished and will mean that hundreds of people in Mason county who have not heretofore been directly interested in health work will become interested by being identified with the active health organization.

The complete roster of precinct chairmen in Mason county outside of the city of Maysville now follows: Washington, Mrs. Ben Marshall Mayslick, Mrs. Brooks; Plutown, Miss Ella Wallace; Minerva, Mr. Walter Worthington; Dieterich, Mr. C. J. Dieterich; Helena, Mrs. Kackler Plumville, Miss Lena Mae Coryell Hill Top, Mr. A. L. Glascock; Orangeburg, Mr. Charles Wilson; Fern Leaf, Miss Hattie Norris; Germantown, Mr. Dan Lloyd; Lewisburg, Mr. Charles Owens; Murphysville, Mr. Charles Clift; Dover, Mr. Herbert Klinker.

AUTO GOES OVER STEEP EMBANKMENT ON PIKE

A large automobile owned by Mr. H. P. Best, of the county, went over a very steep embankment on the Germantown road near the first toll gate house last night and lodged against a wire fence. The machine was rather badly damaged but the occupant escaped injury.

Circuit Judge C. D. Newell today granted a divorce to Ernie W. Gaskins divorcing him from his wife Flora M. Gaskins.

LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT WINS MEDAL

Frank Long Wins Bronze Medal at Daniel Boone For All Round Athletic Ability.

Frank Long, son of Dr. and Mrs. Long of East Third street won the Camp Daniel Boone Triangular Bronze Medal by his all-round athletic ability, good sportsmanship and conduct while at that camp the last week in August.

He was one of the Maysville High School representatives. There were 150 boys, from the various high schools of the State, and to win among so large a number of contestants shows remarkable ability and distinguishes him among the High School fellows of the State. His High School and city should be proud of him. The events of the contest were: Swimming race, 100 yards. Broad jump, 12 feet. Dash (100 yard run), 14 seconds. Tie 6 standard knots. Name 20 birds and trees as pointed out.

Daily plunge or dip in Kentucky River.

Read Bible daily. Best all-round conduct.

LOCAL HEALTH OFFICER VISITING IN SOUTH

Dr. Rice, Mason County's Health Officer, at the request of the United States Public Health Service, has gone to several cities in Alabama to inspect the sanitary systems of those cities with a view to making suggestions on a proposed sanitary improvement in Maysville. Dr. Rice will probably be gone a couple of weeks.

BIG LAND SALE

We call the special attention of our readers to the advertisement appearing in another section of this issue for the sale of two tracts of land in the Mt. Gilead neighborhood by Mr. Thos. A. Keith, executor of Miss Kittie Morehead. These two tracts of land are among the best in the county. The sale is to be held on next Saturday.

AUTOMOBILES GET CLEANING

Owners of automobiles were quite busy Tuesday morning giving their machines a thorough cleaning since the ban on springing water was removed Monday by the water company. The washing of automobiles has been a rather rare thing in Maysville for the past month. All cars were washed at the river and it was quite expensive.

HOW BIG THEY TALK: HOW LITTLE THEY ACTED

"We ought to be going after the trusts and profiteers," says Champ Clark. Champ is an awful fellow about going after the trusts and profiteers after he and his Democratic colleagues are in the minority and he is Democratic floor leader and not Speaker of the House!

One would have supposed, to hear the speeches made by Champ Clark and other Democratic leaders in 1910, 1912, 1914 and 1916 that all they needed was one chance to take a whack at the plutocrats and the profiteers and they would promptly pulverize the whole bunch.

Now after six years of Democratic control of both the legislative and executive branches of government we hear Champ and his colleagues whooping and howling about the way in which the profiteers and plutes are tramping all over the down-trodden populace. It's the same old stuff they used to hand out in the days when they were out and trying to get in. But the trouble is that, according to their own confession, not only did they not correct the evils complained of, but these evils are several times worse than when the Democratic politicians got a verdict on their "high cost of living" outcry of 1912.

Wouldn't you suppose that in view of the record the Democratic pedagogues and damogues would sing a little low on that particular proposition? Then you don't know 'em very well. They assume that this particular line of talk is a vote getter, no matter how many years they have had to correct the evils and abuses they complain about, without moving a finger to accomplish the result.

Mr. Clark and his associate Democratic politicians ought to give to give the people a few months to forget the Democratic record in the matter before setting up again this outcry against the exactions of the special interests and big business and plutocracy and all the other ancient Democratic bugaboos. If they wouldn't hit 'em when they had the authority to do something, why should they do so much verbal swashbuckling now that they are out of power? Either they didn't know how to swat the plutocrats and profiteers when they were in power, or they didn't want to. Take it either way, it doesn't leave much margin for big talk on the subject from that quarter for the immediate present.

DELIBERATE DECEPTION

What do you call a man who breaks his promises? In October, 1918, President Wilson asked the American people to approve his administration "by returning a Democratic majority in both the Senate and the House of Representatives. I am your servant and will accept your judgment without cavil."

The people replied to his plea by electing a Republican Senate, thus indicating in no mistakable terms that they disapproved the President's management of foreign affairs, for the Senate must ratify every treaty. Moreover, the people elected a Republican House. Did the President accept the judgment of the people "Without cavil"? Not for a moment. He selected a bunch of rubber stamps to accompany him to the peace conference. He was for all practical purposes the sole spokesman of America, although he had been openly and definitely repudiated at the polls. If he desired to keep his promise to accept the judgment of the people without cavil, he should have appointed to the peace conference delegates a majority of whom were Republicans—men who had been in some form or other recently approved by the Republicans at the polls. He could have selected men who now are holding or who have in the past held high offices in state or nation by virtue of Republican votes. That was the way to "accept your judgment without cavil." He brazenly broke his promise.

SPELLING ODDITIES

An American in London was introduced to an Englishman, who said: "Why, no introduction is necessary; you and I have had a lot of correspondence."

"I beg pardon," said the Yankee. "What was the name?"

"Chumley."

"Chumley?"

"Yes, J. Evelyn Chumley—CHOLMONDELEY."

"Oh, to be sure! But will you kindly tell me why you folks over here don't pronounce your names as they are spelled?"

"At that," replied the Englishman, "We are not so bad as you."

"Well, you people spell the name of your Secretary of State L-A-N-S-I-N-G, and you pronounce it House."—New York World.

The league of nations covenant gives expression to President Wilson's opinion of the relative influence of Great Britain and the United States by giving the former six votes and America one. Six-to-one may not prove to be as popular a Democratic slogan as sixteen-to-one.

DOINGS IN WASHINGTON

People May Amend

Washington, September 5.—(Special Correspondent) — Senator Brandegee has reported from the Committee on the Judiciary the resolution introduced by him a short time ago proposing an amendment to the Constitution relating to the manner in which future amendments to that instrument shall be made. As the Constitution now reads amendments to it become effective when ratified by legislatures or conventions in three-fourths of the States. Senator Brandegee's resolution would permit Congress to stipulate that Constitutional amendments may be ratified by the electors in the States, or by either of the other two methods not provided. The Senator would also limit the period in which ratification could take place to six years from the date of the proposal of the amendment by Congress.

Speed Rural Mails

At a recent hearing before the Post Office Committee of the House John A. McSparran, Master of the State Grange of Pennsylvania, protested against the policy of the Post Office Department of adding 5 or 6 miles to the length of a rural route instead of establishing a new route and readjusting the old ones. This added length of route he explained, means that much delay in getting a farmer's mail to town, with the result his letter misses a train and must be held over until the following day. When city people have as many as eleven deliveries a day, McSparran insisted that there should be no impairment of the rural service. At the same hearing Senator Moses of New Hampshire protested against the practice of sending a postal from the plains of Texas to report upon mail routes in the hills of his state, and Representative Gould of New York presented the complaints of rural residents of the Empire State against the "penny wise and pound foolish" policy which saves a little money in the rural service at the expense of the patrons.

Preserve Part of Your Pay

These days, "Friend wife" is busy preserving fruits and vegetables for winter use. She is providing for the time when they will not be so plentiful.

There is a good lesson in that for you, Mr. Man. Are you providing now for the time when your earning capacity will be limited by your age? Will sickness or accident bring worry and debt? Will your children get the education they are entitled to? Will you have a home of your own in later years? The thrifty man can answer these questions favorably, for he has a saving account at the Bank. Start today to "preserve" part of your wages each week, as a bulwark against that inevitable "rainy day." Small account are just as welcome at our Bank as the large ones.

CARDUI

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help. "I was taken sick, seemed to be . . .," writes Mrs. Mary E. Veste, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk . . . just staggered around. . . I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, or before taking quite all, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it in the spring when run-down. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

The affidavits and depositions that he has collected have been placed in the hands of the Secretary of War, who has promised to have a searching inquiry made.

Every Town a Fort

Democratic Congressman Guy E. Campbell of Pennsylvania evidently intends that his district shall be well fortified against invasion. In one day recently he introduced fifty-eight bills, each authorizing the Secretary of War to present "one German cannon or fieldpiece" to a designated town, "to be placed according to the wishes of the citizens of said place." Generous distribution of those bills among the voters will doubtless follow, showing his constituents how Mr. Campbell is busily looking after their interests. In sending out copies of the bills he will probably think it best not to state that not one of them has one chance in a thousand of passing.

Being the Story of What Happened At the Magic Moment of Noon, or No Time, When the Sun is Just at the Midway Point of His Journey, and the "Really Realness" of Things Comes Out, Just as It Does at "The Witching Hour."

(Written for the United States School Garden Army, Department of the Interior.)

PART VIII.

"Say, but that Golden Girl does carry on alright! When she's not knitting or sewing, on tiny things for the Belgian babies, I've heard her tell about, or working at the Red Cross, as I've heard her say, she's out here helping the plants to push up their dreams. She cultivates 'em, she sprays 'em, she weeds 'em. She's after the cut-worms! She sprinkles the ground and those plants just grow and grow for her."

"And say! But the lilies and roses over there, the forget-me-nots and the pansies haven't got anything on her for beauty and sweetness—eh, wot? Here she is now!"

I opened my eyes. The Scarecrow was standing as usual in the center of the flourishing garden. The Golden Girl came singing down the garden path with an overseas letter in her hands. She was singing an odd little song:

I come from the silvery land of the moon,
Where the silvery fountains flow
And the silvery silences softly croon
And the silvery moonflowers grow!

I come from the vales of the silvery light,
Where the white dreams wander through
And the twilight fays in their hands
So white
Gather the silver dew.

I come from the land of the silvery moon,
Bring a dream to you:

For I heard your cry a lone heart's boom,
And I come from that land to you!

"Where did you get that queer song?" I asked.

"Oh, I made it up myself," she answered. "It's rather queer, but I dreamed a part of it on that very bench."

The Garden Lady sat silent for quite a while, looking away off.

"Is that all?" cried the children. "Did the Soldier Boy come home?" asked big sister, Peggy.

"What became of the Scarecrow? I mean the Guardian Knight?" asked Jack.

"What became of the Moon Maiden?" said dark-eyed Jane.

"The Soldier Boy is coming home," said the Garden Lady. "The gallant Scarecrow has had his most beautiful adventure of all. Last fall—you remember—there was a big wind storm. Well our gallant Corporal Faithful fell before it. He was blown all to pieces. But the Golden Girl and I are sure that his real self went to live in the silvery land of the moon with his beloved Moon Maiden. Indeed, if you look at the moon next time it's full, I believe you can see them both up there! He is still the Guardian Knight of the United States School Garden Army."

"Oh, Boy!" said Billy.

"Eh, wot?" cried Harold.

But big sister Peggy looked up with dew in her pansy eyes.

TREASURY SAVINGS CERTIFICATE DRIVE OVER KENTUCKY

State Is Called Upon to Purchase
$125,000 in Treasury Certificates
—Campaign On During September.

The Savings Division, War Loan Organization of Kentucky has launched a Campaign for September throughout the State for the sale of $125,000 Treasury Savings Certificates. This is the quota that the Eighth Federal Reserve District, of the Treasury Department has allotted to Kentucky and Savings officials hope to do even better with this allotment than they did with the one given them for the last two weeks of August.

The report of the sale of the Treasury Certificates shows that the public is beginning to see the great value that can be obtained from the purchase of these Government Securities. During the last two weeks of August the Treasury Department asked Kentucky to sell $65,000 in Treasury Certificates. The result was that the State went far ahead of the set quota selling $114,600 in the Securities.

Inquiries received by the Savings Division, of the War Savings Plans in the State Offices in the Columbia Building, Louisville, show that prospective buyers are keenly interested in the offer made by the Government.

These Treasury Savings Certificates are issued in denominations of $100 maturity value, and $1000 and can be bought at any post-office, incorporated banks or trust companies who are qualified agents of the second class for the sale of War Savings Stamps, series of 1919. The Certificates are issued in registered form only. They bear interest at 4 per cent. per annum compounded quarterly and mature January 1, 1924. They are redeemable prior to maturity after ten days written demand and surrender of the Certificates to the office of the Secretary of the Treasury.

War Savings Certificates filled with twenty War Savings Stamps, series of 1919 may be exchanged for Treasury Savings Certificates in the denomination of $100 and ten such War Savings Certificates may be exchanged for Treasury Savings Certificates in the denomination of $1000.

Representatives of the Savings Division of Kentucky are now calling on the limit members of the State asking them to grasp the unusual opportunity and buy Savings Certificates. Reports received shows they are getting good results.

This quota does not include the ordinary sale of War Savings Stamps and the indications point to the State having a big sale of Certificates.

Danville, Ky.—Joe Kendig and B. G. Fox bought ninety-four mule colts at Harrodsburg. They cost from forty to sixty-five dollars per head, and were shipped to Pennsylvania.

WOULD CONNECT CHICAGO WITH NEW YORK

The Type Used in One Year to Publish Endorsements of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Of the many kidney remedies on the market today, none other is recommended like Doan's Kidney Pills. Fifty thousand benefited people gladly testify in the newspapers of their own towns. Forty-five hundred American newspapers publish this home proof of Doan's merit. The type used in one year to tell this wonderful story would make a solid column of metal twice as high as the world's highest mountain. Placed end to end the lines of type would reach from New York to Chicago. These miles of good words told by 50,000 tongues sound glad tidings to any Maysville sufferer who wants relief from kidney and bladder ills. Here's a Maysville case. Don't experiment. Use the remedy endorsed by people you know.

Ben P. Fleming, constable of Mason County, 217 East Lee Street, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Wood & Son's Drug Store, and they have been of great benefit. At times, my kidneys have been out of order and I have suffered from a dull, constant ache through the small of my back. The kidney secretions have been irregular in passage, too. A box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills have never failed to relieve me of the complaint in a short time."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Fleming had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

PRETTY NOVEL HAS MADE FINE PICTURE

Harold Bell Wright's Story of "The Shepherd of the Hills" Has Made Very Attractive Photo Play.

Harold Bell Wright's novel has made a great photoplay. To all lovers of the book this is not surprising. The story is filled with dramatic situations and scenically the grandeur of God's own handiwork is ever before us. The woods and the hills always appeal to a real man or woman and in this play the really great things of life are brought to our understanding as clear as the water from the mountain springs which are ever before our eyes. It is the visualization of the story of the Ozark mountains and their humble dwellers. The story of the man who took the trail that leads to the lower ground and the woman who found her way to the sunlit plains. A story of rough times before the coming of the railroads; the period of "huskin' bees" and "house raisin". Rough and ready settlement of disputes with the fist. It is a virile play and yet one that carries with it a deep message. It is full of wholesome philosophy and has many unique characters. Mr. Wright has directed the work of this photo-play which has been a year in the making. It is shown in ten reels and forms an evening's entertainment.

POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS

Republican members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee have adopted a strictly American policy. By a party vote they have diametrically opposed the wishes of the Democratic members of that body and have eliminated from the Versailles treaty every provision that the United States shall participate in the government and regulation of peoples everywhere on the globe by sharing on commissions, helping to remark boundaries, and naming mandatories. They have agreed that the American government and people have enough to do in the complete restoration of prosperity at home. Several of them believe that the plan to participate in foreign commissions as a result of the war is a clever plan on the part of the allied diplomats to get Uncle Sam to uphold permanently the division of spoils agreed to in the treaty.

Pursuant to the high-handed policy of the State Department, adopted toward all those seeking to go abroad nine months after the signing of the armistice, James H. Maurer and A. Epstein, members of the Pennsylvania Old Age Pension Commission, sent by the legislature of their state to Europe to study old age pension systems, were forcibly removed from the Lapland three minutes before that vessel sailed. Their baggage went on without them. They knew nothing of the causes of the outrage. Senators Knox and Penrose have been appealed to, because, as labor men, they had previously sought to cross the ocean to consult their fellow laborers in Europe. Application for the new passports was made three weeks before the effort to sail and was granted by the State Department. They carried letters from Governor Sprout and others to Premier Lloyd-George and President Poincaré.

Edwin P. Morrow Opens State Campaign With Heavy Artillery Trained on Opponents Exposing Broken Promises to the People.

Pikeville, Ky., September 9.—Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky, made the opening speech of his campaign in Pikeville Monday afternoon in the presence of a tremendous crowd.

Mr. Morrow was introduced by Hon. J. W. Langley, Representative in Congress from the Tenth District, who created great enthusiasm by his prediction that Mr. Morrow and his associates on the Republican State ticket would be elected by majorities ranging from 15,000 to 25,000.

Mr. Morrow's speech set a high mark for his opponents. His expose of the reckless management of the State's finance and his denunciation of the inhuman and unscientific treatment of the unfortunate wards of the State in the charitable institutions made a deep impression upon his audience.

Mr. Morrow's speech was in part as follows:

"Fellow Citizens: "Again the time is at hand when Kentucky must choose its public servants. This is, and should be, an hour of accounting—when the people should take stock of their business—check and balance; when they should reward and endorse the faithful, efficient servant who has given them the benefit of good government; when they should rebuke and condemn their unworthy, unfaithful servants who have brought upon them the ills of bad government.

"Four years ago, in a campaign which stirred the State to its depths, betrayal of public trust was made manifest; the wretched condition of the State's business was made known; drains and leaks and thefts from the public treasury were disclosed; broken covenants were laid bare; and the marks of the strangling death-grip of the old political order was shown upon the fair throat of the State. In that campaign the people were urged to rebuke their betrayer; to condemn those who despoiled them, and by a verdict of guilty at the polls, to establish a higher standard of political faith government and service. But those who serve the people today, and some of those who want to serve it tomorrow, made fair and wonderful promises of economy and reform to stop the leaks in the treasury, to destroy the useless job holder and to give a faithful, efficient business management of fiscal affairs. Under those assurances, a people wedded to their idols, thinking more of their party than they did of their State, withheld their condemnation and gave a vote of confidence to a wretched, faith-breaking administration, and elected to public office those who serve you today.

Four years have come and gone under the present administration which has had full, complete and absolute control of every department of State. What today are the known and admitted facts? What today is the verdict already made in the heart of the people? What does your stock taken show? No economy, no saving but increased expenditure in every department of State; no beheading of useless officers; no stop to the drains and leaks; no lessening of tax burdens, but everywhere increased taxes and assessments; no demonstration of business capacity, but a policy of utter carelessness resulting in the loss of millions of dollars, and a wastefulness which has robbed the people of thousands.

"Pledged to the most rigid economy" in the management of the public business, the present administration has not wiped out a dollar of the public debt; has not saved a penny of the public funds, but has levied increased taxes and assessments and has increased expenditures in every department of State. This administration has collected in taxes and revenue, from the people, more money than was ever gathered by any other administration. Its total collection of $11,000,000 more than the Wilson administration and more than $6,000,000 more than the McCreary administration. Although these enormous additional amounts have been collected, the State interest bearing debt has not been reduced but has grown steadily year by year.

"This same administration upheld, endorsed and praised by my Democratic opponents, made the following promise to the people of Kentucky: "We favor the immediate abolition of all useless offices."

"They promised to behead the 'fire putters out,' to send the foresters back to the farm, and to 'turn on the light.' What has been the fulfillment? None, absolutely none. No abolition of useless offices, no beheading of fire marshals, no sending of city foresters back to the farm. Nay! Nay! the 'faithful' must be fed, the deliverers

COLUMBUS IS SWAMPED BY OLD BOYS IN BLUE

Reunion of the G. A. R. at Columbus Promises to Eclipse Former Meetings—Attendance May Reach 250,000.

Columbus, September 8.—Its housing facilities already strained, this city tonight, the mecca of the Grand Army of the Republic, women's relief corps and other patriotic organizations was facing the proposition of caring for approximately 100,000 additional population, with an additional 50,000 by tomorrow evening. Almost frantic are the appeals made by the housing committee this evening for rooms as thousands of the old veterans and others poured into the city. "But all will be taken care of," the committee declared.

Since Saturday every regular train entering the city has brought delegations of the "Boys in Blue" in numbers ranging from fifty to three thousand. In addition, dozens of special trains from the Pacific and Atlantic coasts have poured almost a continuous stream into the over-augmenting numbers. All day long delegations, headed by life and drum corps, marched through the streets to the registration headquarters. Automobiles hauled those too infirm to march, but in most instances the proffered machines were waved aside. From California, Texas, Maine and Florida they came. Commander Adams stated today that he expects fully 250,000 visitors during the week.

Hammond, Ind., September 9.—Three foreigners are dead, two are dying and 25 are wounded as the outcome of rioting here early today by striking workers of the Standard Steel Car Co. on strike for six weeks. Boston—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, arrived here Tuesday after losing a race with death. His father, Solomon Gompers, 91, died Monday night at the home of his daughter.

Of wards and precincts must be taken care of, and more gas is turned into the official carburetor until the salary list exceeds the speed limit. Since the close of Wilson's administration there has been added to the salary list 105 new positions in old departments and 209 brand new jobs and positions, making a total of 314 new names on the salary roll at an increased monthly cost of $43,000.
